James Twyman, an internationally renowned author, musician and "Peace Troubadour" who has a reputation for drawing millions of people together in prayer to influence events of world crisis. He is the author of twelve books of which include Emissary of Light and The Art of Spiritual Peacemaking, and New York Times best-seller The Moses Code. He produced and directed the films Redwood Highway and Indigo and also released the film The Moses Code, based on his book. James has been invited by world leaders to countries like Iraq, Northern Ireland, Israel, South Africa and Serbia to offer his insights on peace and perform the "Peace Concert," often while conflicts have raged in those countries. He has performed twice at the United Nations in New York, as well as the US Capitol and the US Pentagon. His peace projects, including the "Cloth of Many Colors," have inspired millions of people around the world.

Victoria Johnson, LAC, a seasoned practitioner of shamanic arts who focuses on assisting clients to live fully and to die consciously. She is passionately engaged in the path of love and service and in helping to midwife the world's new creation stories and myths. She was a senior teacher and chair of faculty for eight years at the Four Winds Society, an international shamanic training and research organization.

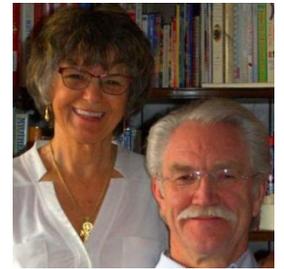

Victoria has been fully initiated into the traditions of the Q'ero medicine people of Peru, having studied with them for over ten years. She has facilitated programs across the US, Canada, Europe, Latin America, and Australia. Victoria maintains a local healing and teaching practice, Condor Journey LLC, near Asheville, North Carolina. Her mission is to assist her clients and students in reclaiming their original grace and destiny, and to lead mythic lives.

Rob Wergin, a clairvoyant, clairsentient, and clairaudient who leads transformational sessions throughout the United States. At a young age, he realized he was able to heal animals and communicate with spirits. Not yet understanding these gifts, he learned to ignore them. But after working in corporate America for 30 years, he received what he now calls the "Ultimate Cosmic 2x4." Since then Wergin has dedicated his life to being a vessel for divine light and love to benefit others. "Diseases, discomforts, and dysfunctions of the body are actually gifts," says Wergin, "gifts created by our soul and by the divine. They are powerful gifts that are packaged in ways we cannot ignore...and because we cannot ignore them, we are given the opportunity to do something about them." He is featured in the full length film Heal, along with Deepak Chopra, Michael Beckwith, Bruce Lipton, Gregg Braden, and many others.

Barb and Bob Huttinga are both Coptic Ministers who use their spiritual training to counsel people who are seeking ways to create an amazing life. Barb is a licensed Massage Therapist and a Naturopathic Educator. Bob is a certified Physician Assistant and a Certified Natural Health

Practitioner who still makes house calls. He practices traditional medicine with drugs and surgery as well as alternative medicine with nutrition, herbs, essential oils, and clinical homeopathy. He writes a newspaper column and has authored two books, Put Your Health in Your Own Hands and The Short Cut to Success-3 Ancient Secrets to Intentionally Create an Amazing Life. Barb hosts a Women's Group to help women of all ages build self esteem and confidence. Barb is also a master at Toe Reading which is a tool used to help people find emotional blocks. She also helps people find nutrients lacking in their body that helps them have more energy and emotional stamina. Together their passion is to teach people to "Put their health in their own hands."

John Davis, an esoteric psychologist, counselor, Egyptologist, author and numerologist, is the director of Coptic Fellowship International, a philosophy based on the Mystery Schools of ancient Egypt. John is the president of Spiritual Unity of nations dedicated to the world as one family. His books, Messiah and the Second Coming and Revelation for
